

Leadership Conference 2007

"Healing from the inside out:
Confronting the inner struggles that bind Korean Americans"

"True change occurs from deep within when one confronts personal struggles with honesty and openness. The aim of MSG 2007 Leadership Conference is to increase emotional growth and spiritual awareness for Korean American young adults by creating a safe space to converse about topics which are rarely discussed in our culture. Exciting colloquiums, worship services, and small group counseling sessions await you at this innovative conference – the first of its kind ever. I urge you to find the strength to begin healing from the inside out by joining us in December. Now is the time to change, grow, and flourish."
